MRS. DONNELLY RETURNS FROM ISLE OF UNGA IN FAR NORTH

Prominent Richmond Woman Witnessed Eruption of Mt. Polof Last Summer

TERRIFIED BY WILDMAN

Brings Back Rare Collection of Aleutian Souvenirs Which Adorn Her Home

Isolated from the rock coast of Alaska on the barren island of Unga for six months, during which time the twenty-five residents of the little village were kept in constant fear of their lives owing to the eruptions of Mt. Polof, together with the terrible cold, are among the thrilling adventures which Mrs. Lottie Donnelly, prominent member of Onetah Council of Pechahontas in this city, recently experienced.

Mrs. Donnelly left Richmond the latter part of May, 1914, in company with her husband for the island of Unga where he was to superintend the erection of a gold cyanide plant for the Deplot Consolidated Cyanide company of San Francisco.

It was on June 24th when Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly arrived on the island and their Arctic experiences began.

"One day, several weeks after we had taken up our residence on the island, we were suddenly startled by the sky which became as dark as night and even more so, when we noticed that it was but 1:00 o'clock.

"On going to the door," stated Mrs. Donnelly, "I saw my clean clothes which I had just hung on the wash line to dry, being covered with black ashes. Far over to the east I saw a pillar of lava spurt high into the air. The residents on the island who for the most part are Russians and Aleutians were terrified. The eruption which later proved to have come from Mt. Polof lasted several days, during which time it showered ashes and hot coals for a distance of fourteen miles about its base.

"It was but a few weeks following this scare that the residents of the town were again thrown into paroxysms of fear by a large circular which was posted on the town hall blackboard which stated that the American constabulary on the island aided by several of the members of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police were searching for a wild man who having been shipwrecked was leading the life of a hermit in a beach cave just outside the town.

"All women residents in the town were notified to keep well within the town limits after nightfall, lest they be attacked by the modern Robinson Crusoe.

"Although there were no lodges in the village," continued Mrs. Donnelly, "a party of women from the states used to walk each evening to a rocky promontory to the south of the island where we used to watch the beautiful evening rays of the Aurora Borealis as they

MAN BROUGHT BACK TO SAN PABLO ACCUSED OF HORSE STEALING HAS OFFICERS AT THE COUNTY SEAT GUESSING—COURT BELIEVES THAT EVIDENCE AGAINST THE ACCUSED IS NOT CONCLUSIVE AND ADVISED CHANGE.

MARTINEZ, Jan. 6.—What is William Dave Smith arrested in Willits for stealing a horse from the barn of John McMahon, the San Pablo Creek dairyman, trying to cover up? Why is a man who maintains that he is innocent so anxious to plead guilty and take a jaunt across the bay to San Quentin? Why has Smith declined to ask for probation? Why did he come into court and ask for a term longer than five years?

These are nuts which the officers will have to crack within the next week or two if the real facts in Smith's career are to be learned. Smith is one of the most peculiar cases which the criminal department of the county has ever had to deal with.

Smith, born in Kentucky and 24 years of age, is the son of a mining engineer now in the South African diamond mines, according to the son's story. He himself has spent most of his life prospecting all the way from Patagonia to northern Mexico, from which country he told Judge Latimer he was driven when the war opened and his property was seized by the Xapatistas, he being later driven away when Villa took Torreón.

Smith told the court that he purchased the horse from a man named Anderson at Morgan Hill, through the assistance of one John McKenzie, likewise a former mining man of Mexico who, while his wife and family were in the east was looking about California for a place to settle. Smith when first brought to jail here said that McKenzie was a section boss at San Miguel but a diligent search failed to reveal any such individual. Smith says he does not know where McKenzie is. He says he was on his way to the El River country to hunt and trap when he was arrested with a rifle, automatic revolver, razor and generous supply of ammunition in his possession.

Smith went on to tell the court that as he could not locate McKenzie and could not substantiate his story, he thought the best thing to do was to plead guilty and as he had heard that there is a library at San Quentin he asked that he be given more than five years in order that he can educate himself. He claims to have had very little education but he speaks excellent English and all trace of the slang and vernacular of the uneducated man is missing.

When he finished his story Judge Latimer asked what evidence there was against Smith and was informed that the horse was found missing from McMahon's barn and was next seen in the possession of Smith at Willits. Smith was making no effort to hide the animal and had in no sparkled over the cold waters of Rehring sea.

"Although the twilight scenes in and about the little village were very beautiful, I would rather cast my lot in Richmond at our little home on Fourth street."

Mrs. Donnelly brought back with her a number of Aleutian trophies, such as miniature totem poles, seal skin canoes and Indian beads.

way altered the identification marks. The Judge then stated that such evidence alone was not sufficient to convict the accused and told Smith that his advice would be to change his plea of guilty to one of not guilty and have the case further investigated. "I would rather turn 50 guilty men free than send one innocent man to prison," said the court in closing.

Inquiry made at Leavenworth, Kansas, has failed to disclose any previous record of Smith. The accused is posing as an innocent man who is the victim of circumstances and in order that all doubt of his guilt may be cleared away, a further investigation has been ordered. Attorney Ralph H. Wight of this city has been appointed to defend Smith and the case will be heard again next Monday.

In the meantime the officers have a number of hard questions to solve in this, the most peculiar of criminal cases.

HEAVIEST RAIN STORM OF THE SEASON

The heaviest rain of the season fell last night. The storm came up without the usual blow or bluster from the southeast which generally precedes a rain of any degree or severity. About 5 o'clock the gentle rain began to fall, increasing in severity until about 9 o'clock when it came down in torrents. A feature of the storm was the hail that accompanied it during the early hours of the evening. This was unusual in that the temperature did not seem to fall during or immediately after the hail storm, and contrary to the general order of such storms, the hail preceded instead of concluding the heavy precipitation which lasted throughout the entire night.

KNIFE WIELDER ELI GRENNICH PLACED UNDER $1500 SURETY

Must Answer Before the Superior Court for Stabbing Attorney December 19

ACCUSED BY COUNTRYMAN

Mike Drakulich Swore That Defendant is Man Who Stabbed Him in Abdomen

Eli Greenwich, an Austrian, small of stature, who possesses the peculiar habit of constantly twirling his mustache, and charged with having stabbed Mike Drakulich on Standard avenue on the night of December 19th, was today bound over to the superior court at Martinez by Police Judge Lindsey on $1500 bonds.

Testimony in the case was taken from Dr. U. S. Abbott who as physician to Drakulich, stated that when called to the Abbott emergency hospital on the morning of December 20th found his patient suffering from internal hemorrhages from a knife stab which had penetrated four inches into the abdomen. Sergeant Jennings and Patrolman Kirkpatrick were the other witnesses placed on the stand.

The capture of Greenwich, according to Chief of Police Walker, was an excellent piece of detective work as accomplished by Jennings and Kirkpatrick.

Greenwich through the entire time that witnesses were testifying against him sat calmly at the side of W. D. Brady, his attorney, and twirled his mustache.

Assistant District Attorney William S. Pierce handled the prosecution in an excellent manner and brought out many new points on the case which had up until that time not been unraveled.

Drakulich who had but a day or so ago arisen from his cot at the Craven hospital, still showed signs of the tremendous ordeal through which he had gone and at times during the cross examination was so weak that he could hardly retain his seat in the witness chair.

Preliminary arrangements were made today by L. H. Shrader, local furniture dealer, and John Pillow, of the firm of Pillow Bros., coal dealers, for an auto trip across the continent, the start of which is to be made as soon as the bad weather stops.

Shrader and Pillow have not as yet definitely decided as to whether they will motor from this city to New York or come from New York back here.

For the past year, arrived in Richmond today to spend several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Pillow.

"Jim," as he was better known about town, was greatly surprised to see the party looking "paid brown" as well as the many new policemen and the new patrol wagon.

Old "Doc" Stork chased Father Time and his death dealing scythe all over the lot for the year of 1914 when he registered 300 Native Sons and Daughters, against 150 funerals.

Such is the official report as made today by City Health Officer Dr. C. R. Blake which is considered one of the best years which Richmond has experienced in some time.

INFANT SUCCEUMBS TO ATTACK OF PNEUMONIA

Gonzalez, living at Bay View, Stage passed away at an early hour this morning after lingering in the balance between life and death for some time as the result of an acute attack of pneumonia. While no funeral arrangements have been made, it is probable that the services will be conducted tomorrow morning. The Clark Undertaking company will direct the funeral.

PORCELAIN WORKS HAS RESUMED OPERATIONS

The Pacific Porcelain works which have been shut down over the holidays in order to overhaul the plant started up yesterday with a full crew of men numbering about 100.

The management of the works consider themselves most fortunate in that prior to the outbreak of the war in Europe, they secured a shipment of some three hundred tons of white clay from England, and as a consequence they are one of the few establishments of the kind which can proceed with their manufacturing without interruption by the existing difficulties in Europe.

TWO MEXICANS CHARGED WITH TAKING FUNDS OF GUITTEREZ

Believed by Officers to be Men Who Robbed Countryman of Savings of Lifetime

THE $409 IS STILL MISSING

Both Suspects Deny Having Any Knowledge of the Robbery or of the Man Robbed

A formal charge of robbery was placed against Juan Martinez and Francisco Sanchez today by Candela Gutterez in which they are accused of having relieved him of $409.75 in Sullivan's saloon, corner of Barrett avenue and C street on Monday night.

This action was taken by the authorities today upon the absolute identification of the men who are occupying cells in the local jail as made by Gutterez.

Just what the two men who are Mexicans are alleged to have done with the money after the robbery is what is proving a stumbling block to the police.

Both Bernstein and Sanchez stoutly deny having seen Gutterez on the evening on which the robbery is alleged to have been committed and know nothing as to any of the events which led up to the strangling of the aged man and the flinging of the money wallet.

CONGRESS IS COMING

The plan of Major D. W. McLaughlin, of this city to bring the members of the United States Congress to California to see the Panama-Pacific Exposition and incidentally become acquainted in a measure with the vast resources of our state is likely to be realized. It was last year that Major McLaughlin stated that he believed with proper support from the press of the state Congress could be prevailed upon to come to California in a body. Immediately everybody at once got busy and now the word is given out that a bill is to be introduced in the lower house by Representative Kahn and a similar bill is to be introduced in the Senate, making the necessary arrangements for the wonderful trip.

The dispatch, giving in detail the plans thus far made was dated at Washington yesterday and says in substance that Secretary of War Garrison and Representative Kahn conferred over plans for using Government transports to carry Congress to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition via the Panama canal soon after the adjournment of this session.

It was decided to use two and possibly three transports. Kahn and Garrison and Representative Underwood will confer with President Wilson regarding the plan this week.

While the President has not yet considered the matter, it is believed he favors the trip of the Congressmen.

A bill allowing use of the transports will soon be introduced by Kahn.

A great majority of the Senators and Representatives are enthusiastically in favor of the trip.

Secretary Daniels said that the plans for the dispatch of the Atlantic fleet to San Francisco by way of the Panama canal, in connection with the opening ceremonies, were going forward, notwithstanding the report of Governor Goethals of Panama, that he could not guarantee the passage of the battleships through the canal in March, because of the slides.

Secretary Garrison discussed with the President and the Cabinet the Goethals report, made to him. Garrison said that even though battleships could not pass through the canal, the trip of the President and other officials through Panama to the San Francisco exposition need not be interfered with, since the party could be taken around the slides by rail.

Secretary Daniels said he would confer with Admiral Fletcher regarding details of the cruise.

All of which goes to show that much can be accomplished by boosting. Major McLaughlin has been working on his plan untiringly ever since the feasibility of it occurred to him. He has traveled all over the state interviewing prominent men and securing support. He has made the senators from all the states of the Pacific coast enthusiastic boosters for bringing their colleagues to California and has journeyed to Utah and there was assured that Senator Smoot and the other members of Congress from that state would do all in their power to bring about the desired end. That much has been accomplished and now that the matter has been taken up by congress itself in the matter indicated above, the rest should be easy.

NEWSPAPERS ADVANCE PRICES

After more than a year of experimentation, two of the afternoon papers published in San Francisco advanced their price Saturday from one to two cents the copy.

War news has increased circulation, but inasmuch as domestic business conditions have not permitted any advance in the advertising rates, whereas the price of white paper has gone up by leaps and bounds, this increase has been a loss and not a gain.

The city now has two papers selling for two cents the copy, the Bulletin and the Call and Post, and one paper, the News, selling at one cent. Both morning papers, the Chronicle and the Examiner, have retained the old price of 5 cents.

Following the lead of two San Francisco afternoon papers, the Tribune and Enquirer, of Oakland, announced Saturday a similar increase from one to two cents per copy. Advances in the price of white paper is also given by the Oakland papers as the reason for the increased price.

The Bakersfield Echo, which has heretofore advertised as a seven-day-a-week paper, has suspended the publication of the Monday issue and will continue as a morning daily on the remaining six days of the week.

It is a fact that the newspapers of the country, for the most part, are running at a loss. A number of years ago some of them were making money, but since the raise in the prices of all kinds of paper stocks the balances have been on the wrong side of the ledger. No newspaper makes anything from its circulation, except that circulation, of course, is necessary in order to make its pages worth anything to advertisers, and those papers which have been selling for a penny on the streets are like the proverbial cat that tried to climb out of the well.

And while we have it in mind it might be well to state on the part of those who own motor cars that nobody objects to paying a reasonable state license tax, provided the money goes into the right channel—for the betterment of roads. Of course it is understood that it will require a certain amount of expense to conduct the motor vehicle department of the state government, but when that is deducted there will be enough left to build highways in a few years to all portions of the state.

Nearly $4,000,000 in fees and license taxes have been collected and turned into the state treasury by Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan since 1911, when he assumed the duties of the office of secretary of state. The department has been a prolific source of revenue to the state, even though the motor vehicle department has been transferred to another branch of the state government and the corporation license tax has been abolished.

This Is My 50th Birthday

AMBASSADOR SULLIVAN

Hon. James Mark Sullivan, American ambassador to the Dominican Republic, whose conduct is being officially investigated by the State Department, was born at Killarney, Ireland, January 6, 1873. With his parents he emigrated to America and lived in Connecticut. He was educated at Yale and practiced law in Connecticut for four years, then going to New York City, where he has made a brilliant legal record. He is prominent in political circles, and one of the prominent Democrats of New York. In 1913, President Wilson tendered him the portfolio to the Democratic Republic, and he accepted. A few months ago the charges were brought against him at the State Department, alleging he had tried to influence certain business affairs in favor of New York capitalists, and that he has used his office to promote financial interests. Senator-elect James D. Phelan of California has been appointed to investigate the charges by Secretary Bryan, and public hearings are now being planned for Washington and New York, to hear the evidence. Ambassador Sullivan has been given the opportunity to appear in person. Minister Sullivan has denied each and all of the charges.

CANAL FORTIFICATIONS ADEQUATE

The fortification of the Panama canal were described as satisfactory today by Colonel Goethals, governor of the canal, before a House appropriation sub-committee. The Colonel told of the carefully planned mine fields and of the mammoth searchlights capable of sweeping the entire range of gun fire.

With the committee Colonel Goethals went over the estimates, aggregating $18,000,000, needed for completing and maintaining fortifications and constructing public works in the Canal Zone during the next fiscal year. He explained the situation caused by recent landslides into the canal. On the original estimates, he said, the engineers expected to have to remove 1,000,000 cubic yards of earth, but already 1,500,000 had been removed without clearing the channel. It was impossible, he said, to foretell when the slides would cease.

Governor Johnson's Inaugural Address

Tonight for the second time with all that comes with an occasion of this character, I take the oath as the Chief Executive of California. I take it with the same high resolve, the same sacred dedication, the same solemnity of duty to be performed, that four years ago upon this very rostrum, we commenced our task. None could then tell what the future held for us, nor whether the ambitious projects for a rejuvenated and regenerated state were possible of fruition. Four years ago we voiced our hopes and our aspirations. In four years those hopes and aspirations have seen their realization, and have become definite settled policies of a great commonwealth. What then was empirical and doubtful, has become certain and definite.

When the new philosophy of government, born of love of justice for all humanity was promulgated, so brief a period ago, few believed its consummation possible. In a single administration a marvelous change has been wrought, a change surpassing in the completeness of the metaphors of the government than has been witnessed by any other commonwealth. The doubt has been dissipated and the darkness that then we faced has been illumined by the sunlight of popular rule. A state has been freed politically, its public servants yielding now no allegiance but to the state; the sinister invisible government so familiar to American commonwealths has been banished; boss rule has been made permanently impossible by direct nomination, direct legislation and the recall; true democracy by the adoption of its instrumentalities has been more nearly approached; suffrage has been extended to women; election of judges, school officials and county officers have been made non-partisan; the public utilities are controlled and regulated by the state; the business of the state has been centralized and systematized under a Board of Control, and corruption and favoritism have been eliminated; text books have been made free of cost to the pupils in our schools; a civil service law has destroyed political patronage and is striving for merit and efficiency in public service; prisons and reform schools reflect the humane and enlightened policy of a new state; a fuller measure of social and industrial justice has been accorded; and the state, while conserving all material interests, first concerns itself with and conserves its humanity. The social program but a few short years ago thought the vain dream of idealists, the program which gave to women who toil shorter hours and more happiness, and to men something of the justice that had been denied them; that has covered with the mantle of care and tenderness of the state, the injured and maimed members of society, has planted the beacon light of social justice and humanity far beyond the point to which the most ambitious commonwealth yet has gone.

and prayed for. Today, it is done. That it has been well done only those who lived in a bygone age where morals and humanity were forgotten in materialism, will for an instant deny; and that the sovereign people of the State of California believe it to be just, and to have been well done, was overwhelmingly attested on the 3rd of November, last.

What has been done by the patriotic and unselfish men and women in the brief period of four years is the touchstone and encouragement for men and women in the four years yet to come, and we turn from the past, glowing with pride in its accomplishment and mellowed with the good that has been done, to the future so rich with promise.

Our people have pointed the way. To them has been submitted the work of the past four years, and those who have been their instruments and trustees in the performance of that work, never wavering in their optimism and implicit confidence in the soundness of heart of the people, submitted in detail their efforts and the new policies that were put in practice. Immediate and overwhelming has been the response from all our people. I say all, for whether you look at the determination of the electorate in our high mountains, in our fertile valleys, to our farmers, our merchants, or our toilers, to our land of the south, or that of the north, or of the east, or of the west from every locality and in every class in the November election came approbation, endorsement, approval and the mandate for continuance. I take it, therefore, that our first duty is to perfect, preserve and perpetuate the various measures which so recently have had such emphatic sanction, and then upon the glorious path of progress so recently blazed, to go forward toward the light.

At this moment, it is not my purpose to set forth to you any definite program. In the biennial message, some few recommendations are made. Work there is in abundance for every unselfish representative. There are subjects fraught with such tremendous possibilities that those who are here animated by the desire to aid the state and promote the happiness of its people, will find ample scope for their industry and their talents. If we may in small degree aid the ever increasing number of our unemployed (none of course locally can solve the problem), if we may find the appropriate mode of marketing farm products, if we may make the lot of those upon our soil a little less harsh, with a system of rural credits, if we may aid our irrigation projects and cause our arid lands to blossom, if we may conserve the waters of our state yet remaining and justly control the use of those held privately, if we may prosper legitimate business by the destruction of illegitimate exploitation, if the elective service of our state, like the appointive under civil service, and like our cities and counties, may be freed from partisan politics, if a bit more of happiness may be given our humanity, if we may render justice wherever injustice has prevailed, if we may do all or any one of them, we will have performed the duty that is ours and we will have kept pace with the just closing most marvelous era of California.

None of this is to be done hastily ill-considered, or half understood legislation. All or the concentration and intelligence, ability, education and knowledge that we possess will be required for our task; and if within a few brief months we may not do it all, or any of it, we may at least with the highest intelligence that there is among us, set it upon the way that those who follow may reach the goal. The work requires the highest and wisest statesmanship. It will have none of petty partisanship. You of the legislature here represent and typify the best in the citizenship of a free people. You bring to your tasks the breadth of vision, the love of country and of state, that can only be felt in its fullness by a people who are the country and state. Peculiarly endowed with opportunity, singularly gifted as a part of a citizenship unexcelled in all the world, you will rise to the responsibilities that are yours and contribute your part to the destiny of a glorious land. If there be some small souls who shall raise a partisan barrier behind which they seek for petty personal or partisan advantage, in the solemn task that is yours and mine, we will put them aside and leave them in the darkness from which they have not yet emerged and harmoniously, the rest of us will go forward. In the spirit in which the duty of legislation is approached, will each be received. Fondly do we hope, fervently do we pray, that now at the close of a wondrous period of development politically and progress governmentally, in our state, at the beginning of another of promise and of hope, all may dedicate themselves to the work in hand with the single thought, and purpose, and hope, and aspiration, of a sacred duty to be conscientiously performed.

DRAMATIZATION OF POPULAR NOVEL

Great interest has been aroused among local theatregoers over the opening tonight at the Richmond theatre of Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch, with Beatrice Michelena in the star role. This story is widely known and has been declared to have been one of the best novels ever written. In the filming of the book, nothing has been lost and of those who have read the book will be pleased at the drama as shown at the Richmond theatre.

The play was reproduced by the California film company which was organized last year by some of the largest men of money in the state and is producing only the very highest class of drama. In San Francisco last week, this play crowded the big Tivoli theatre for many nights and will likely be returned there for a return engagement. Dis-zi Joe, a two reel comedy, and Daphne will round out a very attractive bill.

The library at No. 33 East Thirty-sixth street, valued at $253,745, is made part of the town residence total of $1,000,914. Report on these valuations was handed yesterday to the counsel for the state comptroller, but it will not be filed for several months, when the appraisal of the entire estate is complete.

riant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of muss. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

PROSPERITY IN 1915 DEPENDS UPON FAITH IN OUR COUNTRY

Our nation is being penalized by a crisis of European methods and ideals.

We cannot escape entirely the bitter fruits of a war founded in governmental system where Monarchy, Paternalism, Public Ownership and Autocracy go hand in hand.

Now as never before we have opportunity to compare American ideals and methods with those practiced in Europe and to measure what American systems and institutions have gained for humanity.

Probably we will learn more and more each day of the coming year to appreciate "all we have and are," to regard our citizenship in a more precious light, to see our problems more clearly, more tolerantly.

The war has made material progress difficult throughout the United States. It has added to the obstacles of financing constructive effort. It has enforced economies upon the large and small, has laid on the shelf plans for many desirable things.

Prosperity in this country during the coming year demands above everything else faith in our Republic and faith between man and man. It cannot be had in suspicion and distrust.

If this military calamity teaches us a deeper and more useful patriotism; if it serves to advance understanding among us of one another's rights and wrongs; if it removes prejudice and strikes down distrust—then this war will not be without benefit to the citizens of the United States.

We hope for prosperity the coming year. To have it will require hard work, courage and faith in ourselves.

M. E. S. S. BOARD GATHERS AT BANQUET

The Sunday school board of the Wesley Methodist church met last evening in the church parlors to attend to the affairs of the year that has just been brought to a close and lay plans for the conduct of the affairs of 1915.

The meeting was presided over by B. McCallum, the new superintendent of the schools, whose report showed that there was a deficiency in the number of teachers and the result was that six new ones were elected. A new finance committee was also elected and after the routine business of the evening had been transacted, thirty-six Sunday school workers who had braved the inclemency of the weather were seated about a heavily laden banquet table which was spread in the parlors of the church and partook of the steaming viands which had been prepared by some of the best cooks of which the Methodist church is famous.

The officers' reports showed that the Sunday school is in a very flourishing condition, but are not yet satisfied with the showing that has been made and intend to make this year a banner one in the history of the organization.

DELTA ROAD EMBANKMENT IS NEARLY COMPLETED

With only 2800 feet of earth embankment yet to build on the route of the Borden road across the islands from Byron to Stockton, Contra Costa's portion of the road will soon be completed and ready for traffic which will start as soon as the big bridge is built across Old River. Already 700 feet of embankment has been thrown up by crowding earth from the surface of the surrounding land from a distance of several hundred feet on either side. Supervisor J. H. Trythall who has supervised the work is highly pleased with the progress which has thus far been made.

As soon as the flood waters of the winter subside which will be about June, work will be started on the steel drawbridge which will be built across Old River, Contra Costa and San Joaquin counties sharing the cost. The bridge, it is believed will be completed in about three months, it being necessary to rush the work to completion before the next winter rains come.

AUTOISTS AGAINST THE PRESENT STATE REGULATIONS

The legislative committee of the State Automobile Association left yesterday for Sacramento, where it will appear before the State Legislature in an effort to secure important amendments to the automobile laws. The committee represents thousands of automobile owners as well as the dealers throughout the state and the amendments which its members are going to fight are the most important that ever affected the automobile interests in California.

The most important change which the motorists want made in the state laws is the exemption of motor vehicles from personal taxes. The committee, which will make the fight at Sacramento, is prepared to show that the automobiles are taxed higher in this state than any other state in the country, and that besides being taxed higher for registration purposes they are also taxed as personal property. This condition does not exist in the East and in fact no other part of the country, and it is the object of the motorists to secure such amendments to the State law as will give the motorists the same treatment here that they receive in other states.

The motorists will also advocate a uniform speed law and other uniform regulations governing automobiles in every part of the state. They want all towns and cities to have the same traffic regulations and the same rules for lighting automobiles. They also want a law compelling all vehicles to carry lights at night.

Another project which the motorists favor is the turning of all money collected from automobiles to the state, providing that the state uses all of the money for the building and improvement of roads. While all of these measures will be of interest to every owner of an automobile in California, the most important of them will be the exemption of motor vehicles from personal tax and it is this feature, together with the fact that the registration method recently adopted by the state engineering department has added another big increase to the automobile taxes, that has raised a storm of protest from the motorists throughout the state.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your back hurts or bladder bothers you

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid, which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, because sluggish the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

Merchants giving American Stamps deserve your patronage, because they share their profits with you, ad.

Hear What Others Say:

"There are no Liniments that equal Sloan's. My husband has neuralgia very often, he rubs Sloan's on his face and that is the last of it."—Mrs. V. J. Brown, Route 1, Box 181, Hills, Tenn.

"I have used Sloan's Liniment for family use for years and would not be without it. We have raised a family of ten children and have used it for croup and all lung trouble; also, as an antiseptic for wounds, of which children have a great many, it can't be beat. My wife sprained her ankle last summer and it was in bad shape. Sloan's Liniment applied enabled her to be as good as ever in a week. I have used it several times for sprains and rheumatism."—John Newcomb, R. R. No. 2, Keosau, Iowa.

Trusting to Memory

GOOD telephone service depends vitally upon care in calling telephone numbers. A wrong number called causes loss of time to you, to the party called and to the operator. Every instance means inconvenience to all concerned which is wholly avoidable.

It is not the loss of time to you alone or to the operator that concerns us most, but it is the annoyance to the party called. Your mistake cannot be explained to him, and the Telephone Company is held responsible for your error.

Consulting the current issue of the telephone directory, instead of trusting to memory, giving your number clearly, and quickly correcting the operator if she misunderstands your call, will greatly increase the efficiency of the service.

"One of my family had kidney complaint for years and spent hundreds of dollars trying to find relief," says Mrs. Mary C. Sutherland, of 1239 Nevin avenue, Richmond. "Finally, Doan's Kidney Pills were used and they brought great benefit. It was remarkable how Doan's Kidney Pills so thoroughly relieved this case, after other remedies had utterly failed."

Get a small package of Hamburg Brewster Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold. Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM STIFF, ACHING JOINTS

Relieve Soreness from joints and muscles with a small trial bottle of old St. Jacobs Oil

It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia. Limber up! Get a 25 cent bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

"TIZ" FOR TIRED SORE, ACHING FEET

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet, swollen, bad smelling, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, callouses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the feet you've tried without getting relief, just use "TIZ."

"TIZ" draws out all the poisonous exudates which puff up the feet. "TIZ" is moist. "TIZ" is cool. "TIZ" is gentle. "TIZ" will cure your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired. WHAT THE LEGISLATURE HOPES TO ACHIEVE DURING THE FORTY-FIRST SESSION

Nothing of Sensational Nature Anticipated by the State Solons
Absence of leaders who jam Legislation Through Noticeable
State Commission Form of Government Considered—Japanese Land Bill May Precipitate Row as May Effort to Hand Over S. F. Waterfront—Stringent Regulations of Liquor Law.

(Special to the Record-Herald)

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 6.—While it is true that the forty-first session of the Legislature bids fair to be largely influenced by the wishes of the Governor, this does not imply that the present session will be a very lively one, or that there is not likely to be a number of stubbornly contested debates and earnest fights over the several bills that will come up for passage.

Governor Johnson has committed himself to the passage of non-partisan election laws and the passage of a number of bills along these lines and the prediction that this will be a short session is hardly borne out by the facts when one considers the vast amount of legislation that must be enacted to meet the pressing needs of the State, ere adjournment can be taken. From a careful canvass of the matter in hand, it will probably be well along in the month of April before the second session of the Legislature will be ready to put aside its work. Among the multitude of bills that will be considered will be the amendment of the liquor laws, the passage of the road bills, the possible consideration of state division and amendments to the Boynton employers' liability act, extending its provisions to the farming community, thereby benefiting those in the rural districts and the consideration to amendments of a number of labor measures and putting "the brakes" upon the usual number of reformers who go enthusiastic over their pet schemes which they are anxious to crowd through.

The absence of leaders, which in the past haunted the halls of the State Capitol, will have a tendency to retard legislation. These men who with machine precision were able to take hold of a measure, line up all of its supporters and evade its opponents are conspicuous for their absence. This was a weakness that was noticeable two years ago when it had no leaders who could rally an unqualified support, and the senate having lost Boynton, Gates, Hewitt, Wright, Curtin, Caminetti, Shanahan and many others will undoubtedly be in the same position this year.

In the framing of important laws, Contra Costa county's representatives in the legislative halls, Senator J. C. Owens and Assemblyman William R. Sharkey will be heard from as both have a number of bills for the benefit of the districts they represent, which they hope to get through.

The program is to make all offices appointive by the governor so far as the state is concerned except the governorship, lieutenant governorship and controller, and all county offices appointive by the supervisors of each county except district attorney and tax collector or auditor and the supervisors themselves. This of course will largely increase the patronage of the governor, especially as it carries with it the appointment of over one hundred judges. The salaries of judges will be uniform and they will be sent where they are needed, all their salaries will be paid by the state instead of half by the county as now. It is not proposed to interfere with the present and newly elected officers so that the constitutional amendment if it carries two years from now will give to Johnson's successor the appointment of the state officers and in the case of many of the judges it will be six years before the bill will go into effect.

The non-partisan plan is to do away with all party nominations. At the primaries the two candidates having the highest vote will be candidates before the people for the office they seek regardless of the fact that they may have been formerly of the same or opposite parties. It is the present system of county elections, extended to the State.

Another important item on the program is to abolish two houses of the legislature and to have only one house. It has even been suggested that the legislature be entirely abolished and that the state be run by a commission form of government as some of our cities are managed now. Whether a constitutional amendment will be introduced to that effect or not remains to be seen. If it is we would only elect five commissioners and all the members of the legislature and state officers except five would be abolished. It is claimed that that system would be a great saving in money and as the legislature is generally subservient to the governor it is useless anyhow.

Aside from these radical laws affecting the very system of state government we are to have a sweeping liquor law which will be backed by the wine growers of the state. It proposes to limit the number of saloons to one in a thousand, to grant the licenses to a building instead of to an individual, so that if a place becomes disreputable no more licenses can be granted to that locality; to close saloons on Sundays and from midnight to six a. m. and to give the power to issue licenses to the state through a commission which will control the liquor business of the state just as the automobile licenses are issued and controlled. The license will probably be several thousand dollars and there would be 2000 saloons in the state because dry territory would exist as now wherever the people desired it. The Royal Arch will make a fight to have the limit made one saloon for every 500 inhabitants instead of one for every 1000.

The Boynton employers' liability bill is to be amended. It will be recalled that when Boynton introduced his bill it provided for insurance for farm laborers as well as all other class of labor, but the country members made such a roar that he amended it as otherwise the bill would have been killed. Now, however, it is claimed that the farmers themselves desire the protection which the bill affords them, and that they are not only willing but anxious to have it amended. Boynton predicted that that would be the case when he amended the bill to please them two years ago.

No amendment to the Japanese alien land bill will be attempted, but Assemblyman Browne of Tuolumne has a measure to forbid the employing of aliens in excess of twenty per cent when the employer hires five persons or more. He declares that Americans are being frozen out of the mines in the state because alien labor can be obtained more cheaply than American. His bill practically duplicates the Arizona constitutional provision on the subject. It is possible, however, that Washington may be heard from on the subject, and that in view of the foreign complications that would be certain to arise if it were passed, and the war in Europe, the Wilson administration will ask that it be quietly side-tracked.

Another subject is that of roads. For years the legislature has been trying to improve the plan of allowing supervisors to act as road supervisors as well, it being generally agreed that as a rule the expenses are many times what they should be, and the roads many times worse than they ought to be. Assemblyman Sharkey proposes to introduce a bill to hand over all the roads in the state to the state bureau of highways and to allow it to frame a comprehensive plan for a system of roads that will cover every part of the State. He believes that as a result the State would have better roads and spend less money in getting them.

Another fight that promises to create much interest is the proposition to hand over to San Francisco her own waterfront as has been done with the other waterfronts in the State. It is not likely however that the bill will pass, or passing would receive the gubernatorial approval.

is here. A delight and an indispensable aid to those who have already used them. Just six minutes to clean, polish and dry the china, glassware and silver of a dinner for eight people.

No contact with hot water, steam or hot soapy suds. Self-cleaning, sanitary, no pump used. Small in size, easily lifted and carried. Strongly built of stamped metal.

Can be purchased on easy payments. Write for our plan.

Send prepaid, returnable at our expense within ten days, if not exactly as represented

It has a capacity sufficient to wash at one time all the dishes of the average family, yet is so light and portable that it can be easily moved from place to place.

The movement of the handle forward and backward revolves the propeller in the bottom of the washer, which dashes the hot soapy water with a swirling effect around, through and over all the dishes, thoroughly attacking them at all points, and cleaning them with absolute perfection on all sides. The dishes are completely washed in less than one minute's time and the washer works so easily that a child can operate it.

Turning down the small lever at the top of the washer, opens drain valve and discharges the water in a few seconds. The dishes are then rinsed and sterilized by pouring a dishpan of clear boiling water through the lid and turning the handle about thirty seconds. The rinsing operation automatically cleans the washer itself, which always remains in an absolutely sanitary condition.

Beautifully illustrated booklet showing every phase of the Whirlpool Sanitary Dishwasher sent on request.

Thousands are being sold by leading stores in Philadelphia, New York, Chicago, St. Louis and other large cities. The Whirlpool enjoys a monopoly of the market, and furnishes agents the best opportunities for quick money making available anywhere.

THIS FERN IS LIKE A SUNBEAM IN A DARK CANYON

The Record-Herald is in receipt of a beautiful fern which has been added to the decorations of the business office. This dainty specimen of verdant vegetation is conducive to inspiration—pleasing to the eye and the aesthetic taste and adds materially to interior decorations which at best, not the most attractive in the interior of a printing office. This choice piece of "furniture" was presented to the force by A. Winters, the artist, and is certain to have an elevating effect upon those who come in contact with it.

CASH BONUSES FOR BETTERMENT OF THE SERVICE

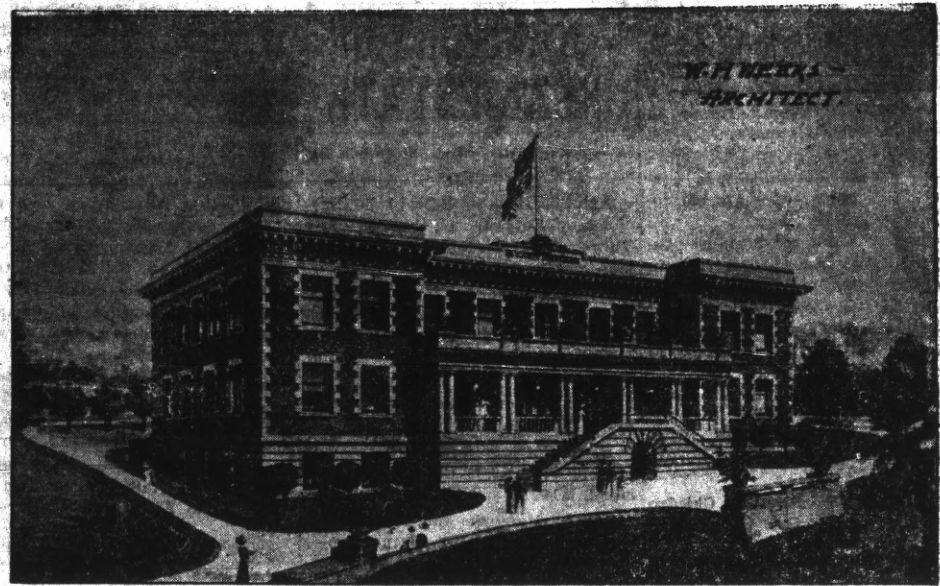

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 6.—Cash bonuses for city employees who make suggestions for the betterment of the service in their various departments are to be offered in Oakland, at the suggestion of the civil service board. The board has sent a letter to the head of each city department suggesting this bonus idea, and it has been taken up enthusiastically as an efficient means to add efficiency in municipal work. As a preliminary step, employees who make good suggestions are to be given a special credit in their efficiency rating, and the cash bonus plan will be put in operation later. The letter to the heads of the departments is as follows:

"The Civil Service department of the City of Oakland wishes to mark the new year by asking each man and woman in the city service for definite, constructive suggestions for the improvement of the manner of doing the city's work, such suggestions to deal with any or all of the following subjects: organization, methods of work, efficiency markings, salaries, vacations and leaves of absence, promotions and examinations.

"In estimating the value of plans proposed the department will have the aid of committees from the offices and employees. Special credit will be given for every suggestion adopted, which will materially affect the person's efficiency rating. "If this plan brings forth enough of profit to the city, a system of cash bonuses will be worked out for its further development."
